

Lemur Behaviors

	Behavior Code	Behavior Description
	SELF-GROOM (SG)	The animal uses tooth comb, or grooming claw to clean itself.
	SIT/REST (SR)	The animal is stationary with either head up and eyes open, or head down and eyes closed
	SCENT MARK (SM)	The animal uses glands near tail, arm or wrist or urinates on surface.
	WALK/RUN (WR)	The animal uses four limbs to locomote terrestrially on a flat surface.
	CLIMB (CL)	The animal moves along either tree branches, ropes or cage.
	CHASE (CH)	The animal follows another animal in an aggressive manner.
	GROUP GROOM (GG)	The animal uses tooth comb, or grooming claw to clean another animal.
	CUFF (CU)	The animal swats at another animal with their arm.
	EATING FOOD (EF)	The animal is stationary with mouth moving chewing food.
	DRINKING WATER (DW)	The animal is stationary consuming water.
	FORAGING (FO)	The animal searches for food in exhibit by sniffing, parsing through food choices, attempting to retrieve food.